Officers' Wives to Work on Adobe Tour

Wives of Ft. Ord officers have a choice role to play during Monterey's Adobe Tour this year. They will be hostesses at Stevenson House, a fine two-story home dating from the late 1830's.

The theme for the tour this Saturday and Sunday, April 29 and 30, is "Ghosts and Legends of Old Monterey" and Stevenson House has one of the best ghosts on the route. The identity of the ghost is debated: some say she is Fanny Osbourne, the love of Robert Louis Stevenson's life, but the more popular story is that she is Senora Juan Girardin, who owned the house when RLS lived there.

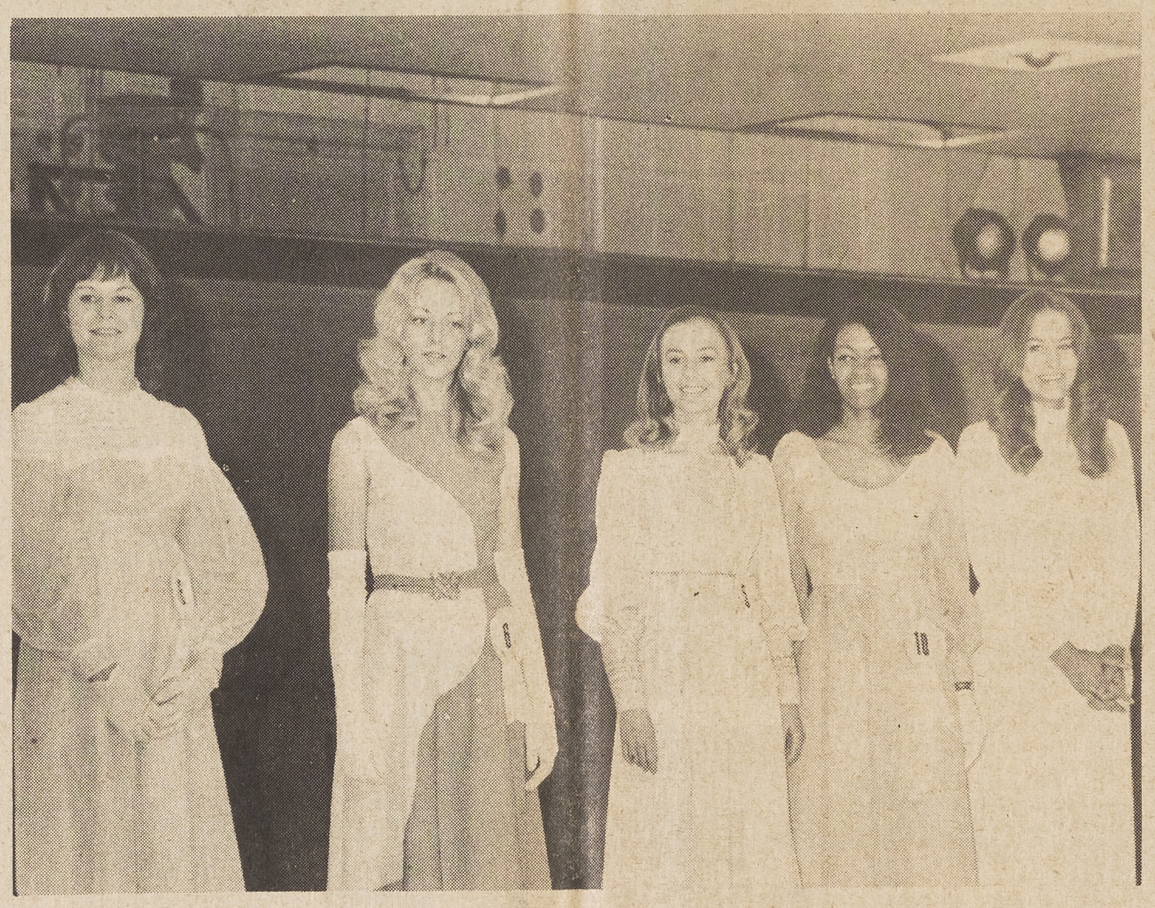
The legend is that Senora Girardin returns to the house in December and goes to the nursery where she grieves for her grandchildren who, she thinks, were victims of the contagious desease that attacked both the Senora, herself, and her two grandchildren. The Sonora died but the children survived.

Stevenson House is named for RLS, though he lived there for only three and a half months during 1879. He came to Monterey to be near Mrs. Osbourne, whom he later married. The house is now the repository of all Stevenson's effects, including his manuscripts. Isobel Strong Field, Stevenson's step-daughter and heir, brought the collection to Monterey.

The Adobe Tour, sponsored by the Monterey History and Art Association, will include 17 stopping places this year, most of them old adobe structures dating back to the years of Spanish and Mexican rule in California. Some of the buildings are open to visitors only during the annual Adobe Tours.

On Saturday, April 29, tours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Sunday, April 30, from noon to 5 p.m. The prices, which are $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for military in uniform and children, include admission to the buildings, transportation from building to building and tea served at Casa Serrano from 2 to 5 p.m. each day. On Saturday, lunch will be served at Memory Garden from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. -- the price is $2.50. A Paisano Coffee will be served Sunday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., also at Memory Garden; the price for the coffee is 75 cents.

About 80 wives of officers from Ft. Ord, under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. E.J. O'Shaughnessy and Mrs. Robert Frus, will welcome visitors to Stevenson House and reount the history of the building and the many treasures displayed there. Mrs. Francis Naughton is chairman of the committee that will collect fresh flowers and prepare the arrangements to decorate the house.



FIVE OF FINEST - Miss Monterey County Pagent was held last weekend. With array of beauty and talent on hand, judges had difficult decision. Top finishers were: (from left) Loraine Gardner, 20, second runner-up from Salinas; Diane DeLost, 20, first runner-up from Salinas; Debbie Elder, 20, Miss Monterey County 1972 from Pacific Grove; Demetria Hunter, 19, third runner-up from Seaside and Carol Wright, 20, fourth runner-up from Carmel Highlands. Miss Monterey County will now compete in Miss California Contest in June and be official hostess of Monterey County Fair, August 9 through 13.

Criticizes

America's leadership is not as intelligent as the Russian, Chinese and North Vietnamese leadership, according to Mel Vercoe, candidate for Congress in the 12th Congressional District.

Addressing an audience in Monterey, Vercoe stated, "Allowing the communists to trick us into continuing the war in IndoChina plays directly into their hands. The war is rapidly destroying what is left of America's once strong economy and this is the way communism will come to America, not by military threat.

"The present offensive against the Saigon government could have waited until U.S. troops wee out, but its real intent, to keep us involved long enough to once and for all destroy us as a future threat to the spread of communism, would have been blunted."

"It is unfortunate," said Vercoe, "that we can't find leaders more interested in America's long range survival and less interested in the short-sighted pursuit of the almighty dollar."

McGovern Headquarters Is Opened

The local George McGovern for President headquarters has been opened in Monterey. Located at 301 Ocean Street in Monterey's Oak Grove area, the phone number is 372-8141.

The announcement of the opening was made by McGovern's peninsula coordinators Dick Hirshkind of Carmel, Pearl Carey of Seaside and Caroline Page of Monterey.

Mrs. Frances Bowen has been named to serve as headquarters chairman and Bobbie Hall will act as temporary office manager for the primary campaign.

A formal opening of the headquarters will be held in the near future.

A.E. Barragan

The life within us can be compared to the water in the river. It could rise higher than man has ever known and flood the parched upland or drown our muskrats. My life hasn't always been dry land. I can look back and see the banks which my life-stream recently washed, before the ebb. I sit here now hoping and wishing or even praying that the cloud I see in the distance isn't coming into my life to hide the sunshine, but in reality, to bring rain that will swell my river back to the level of the banks in my past.

There is a song: "Into Each Life Some Rain Must Fall". The lyricist who wrote that was thinking the opposite of the lyricist who wrote "Everytime It Rains - It Rains Pennies From Heaven". The one I wish I had written says: "Let a Smile be Your Umbrella on a Rainy Day."

Your life can be what you make it. It depends on you. If you set a goal for yourself, aim in that direction only. If you stumble or fall, try to fall forward so that you will not change directions. And be persistant. I read a story once of a strong and beautiful bug which came out of the dry leaf of an old table, which had stood in a farmer's kitchen for sixty years --from an egg deposited in the living tree many years earlier still, hatched by the heat of an

Fine Arts Festival Announced

The Monterey Peninsual Unified School District will stage its Eighth Annual Fine Arts Festival April 27-28 at the Del Monte Shopping Center in Monterey.

The two-day festival will feature instrumental and choral music involving over 1,000 students in nearly 30 groups, plus arts and crafts displays and "art in action."

There is no admission and the public is invited to attend the festival both days, announced Mildred Koch and Lucile Pedego, co-chairwomen for the event.

Music groups, including bands, choruses, instrumental esembles, a chamber choir, a barbershop group and the district's Elementary Honor Chorus will play in the Cinema 70 Theater from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on both days. In addition, the Fremont Junior High School Stage Band will make a special appearance Friday night at 7 o'clock in the center's mall.

Arts and crafts produced by hundreds of students from schools throughout the district, will be exhibited in the vacant store building next to the theater. Del Monte Center management and merchants have donated the use of the theater and the vacant building.

In the display building, which will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. both days, the public will be invited to watch students creating sculpture, working with papier-mache and silk screening, and demonstrating work in other art forms and in crafts.

A puppet show by students at Stilwell School will also be included in the festival's program.

Good News

Homeowners who have neglected to file for their Homeowner's Property Tax Exemption have some cheering news this year, according to County Assessor Donald P. Stewart.

A bill recently passed by the Legislature provides that a claimant who fails to file by April 15, but who does file by June 15, may receive 80 percent of the exemption ($600 assessed value) if he submits proof satisfactory to the Board of Supervisors that the failure to timely file was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect.

Stewart suggests that any person who owned and occupied his home as his principal place of residence on March 1, 1972 and who has not yet filed his Homeowner's Exemption Claim should contact the assessor's office at the Courthouse in Salinas for assistance in filing during this extended period.

PTSA Events Announced

The Seaside High School Parent-Teacher-Student Association (PTSA) will present an open forum tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. in Seaside High's Halleck Cafeteria. The topic of the meeting is "Today's Education--What I Think."

This Saturday, April 29, the PTSA is holding a benefit barbeque. Barbequed ribs and chicken will be available at Seaside's Mayfair Center parking lot from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Times Changed

Dur to longer periods of daylight, the time of the film series "Differing Cultures of the World," now ongoing at Villa del Monte, will be changed from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Wednesday evenings.

This group of films are in beautiful color with an excellent sound track. They are presented by the Alliance on Aging in cooperation with Monterey Peninsula college and open to the public with no admission charge.

Renewal Notices to Be Mailed

Sixty days before their drivers' licenses expire, California motorists will receive "time to renew" notices in the mail. Director of Motor Vehicles Robert C. Cozens said that, following a two-month shakedown in Sacramento County, the DMV will start issuing the remainders routinely on a state basis.

The notices are made possible by the DMV omputer's ability to pick out drivers with specific birthdays on which their licenses expire. They are not only a convenient reminder to those who might forget to renew on time (about seven percent) —they will also save a quarter million dollars annually.

A person coming into a DMV office to renew his drivers license brings the renewal notice with him. Instead of filling out a long questionnaire, he takes it directly to the driver licensing counter. It already bears identifying information based on his existing DMV record. He is asked to indicate any changes 9most likely: address, weight, height, marital status). With these noted, the form is ready for processing, having saved several minutes of the applicant's and the clerk's time.

"We are confident the new system will work," Cozens said. "We are breaking it in to test for any rough spots. Then, beginning in July 1972, all California drivers will start getting the reminder."

Over 2.7 million California drivers renew their licenses annually.

During the next tow months, some 24,000 persons in Sacramento County will receive the renewal notices.

Special Show

There's a new girls' P.E. class at Seaside High School this quarter, known as "Fun I." The first public manifestation will be this Saturday, April 28, when the girls will spend all day (except from 9-10 a.m.) in the gymnasium "mountain climbing" and rappelling down the walls.

In May, there'll be a day of skin-diving in the swimming pool, then a day of yoga and finally a day of judo and karate. Mrs. Gerry Montgomery, girls' P.E. teacher, designed the class to teach something of lasting value around a currently-popular activity.

Cutbacks At Fort Ord

The Department of the Army April 17, 1972 announced recently the reduction of 10 Advanced Individual Training (AIT) Infantry companies from the training base. The action reduces the number of AIT Infantry companies from 50 to 40. The reduction will occur at Fort Ord, California and became effective April 17.

A reduction in the effort in Vietnam and a program permitting volunteers to receive advanced individual infantry training in tactical units of their choice combine to reduce the Army's training base capacity requirement. It is anticipated that the 340 military personnel assigned as cadre to the affected companies will remain at Fort Ord to fill existing requirements. Any personnel who cannot be utilized at Fort Ord will be reassigned to meet Army requirements worldwide.

The civilian positions at Fort Ord will be iliminated as a result of this action. It is anticipated that the reduction will be accomplished through attrition and reassignments and that no employees will be involuntarily separated.

Vaccinate Your Dogs At Clinics

R.S. Fraser, M.D., Monterey County Health Officer, recently announced the reduced-fee rabies vaccination clinics for the Monterey area.

The clinics, held yearly in conformance with the State Law, are aponsored jointly by the Monterey County Health Department, Animal Control Division, and the Monterey Bay Veterinary Medical Association.

"Because Monterey County is still designated as a 'rabies area' ", Dr. Fraser said, "the law requires that a valid rabies certificate be presented before a dong license may be obtained. Constant danger of rabies being contracted from wildlife by our family and neighborhood dogs makes it a real public health hazard. The vaccination of all dogs, plus the impoundment and disposal of unwanted strays, is a well proved method of protection of the public. The entire program is directed at preventing the necessity of a person having to take the painful Pasteur treatment as well as preventing the disease in dogs."

The State Law requires that all dogs be vaccinated as soon as they reach 4 months of age and before they vecome 5 months old.

At the clinics the reduced-fee for vaccination is $2 instead of the regular fee of $7 at the veterinarian's office.

Locally the clinics will be held at the Seaside Fire Station from noon to 2:30 p.m. (today) Thursday and at the Marina Village Shopping Center Parking Lot-Vista del Damino side, on Thursday, May 4 from 12:30 until 2 p.m.

Today's Army NEWS By SSG R. Cardwell

ARMY RECRUITER

Hello everyone.

TODAY'S ARMY NEWS is pertaining to your education. EDUCATION is so important in planning your career that without it life is almost useless. Therefore it is quite important that you receive your DIPLOMA. By all means, stay in school. Your high school diploma can help you get the kind of job you want in a military or civilian career.

Today, industry needs men who can solve technical problems and with the background and education to learn demanding new skills and have the ability to handle responsible jobs. It is true that some people do make it without a high school diploma, but these are few and far between, so the odds are heavily against you.

Without a HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA, you are classified as unskilled labor and the need for unskilled labor is decreasing every day. Raises and promotions for untrained workers come hard, if at all.

The Army, too, needs and look for men with that important DIPLOMA and what it represents, because, like industry, its technology is highly developed. To such men, the Army offers the greatest opportunities for advancement.

But there is more tostaying in school than earning a diploma. The time you spend in school is a time of personal development, an important part of any education. Through classes, physical education, extracurricular activities and just associating with people who have similar interests, hopes and problems, you learn to get along with others. In school, you develop teamwork and leadership skills that will help you get ahead in any walk of life, especially the US Army.

Good Luck, see you when you graduate. Stop by 431-Webster Street, Monterey, or call 372-4742/372-0553.

urn, emerging years later into a beautiful winged butterfly. Can you visualize that bug's faith in a resurrection? Doesn't that strengthen you? Who knows what beautiful and winged life, whose egg has been buried for ages and ages under layers and layers of woodenness in a dead dry life of society, deposited in some green and living "tree"--heard gnawing out now for years by the family of man, as they sat around the festive table,--may unexpectedly come forth out of society's most handsomed funiture, to enjoy its perfect summer life at last! Visualize and be strong!

"The light which puts out our eyes is darkness to us. Only that day dawns to which we are awake. There is more day to dawn. The sun is but a morning star." -- Walden.

By a conscious effort of the mind we can stand away from actions and their consequences. All things, good and bad, go by us like a torrent. We are not altogether involved in Nature. I may be either the driftwood in the stream, or the Milky Way in the sky looking down on the stream. I may be affected by a theatrical exhibition, or I may not be affected, on the other hand, by an actual event which appears to concern me much more. I only know myself as being a representative of a human being, the scene of thoughts and affections. I am sinsible of a certain doubleness by which I can stand as remote from myself as from another. Remember this well, because I may never say it again: Regardless of the experience, I am conscious of the presence and criticism of a part of me, which is not a part of me, but a spectator. This spectator (me) shares no experience. Just takes notes. That is no more I than it is you. When the play, it may be a tragedy, of life is over, the spectator goes his way. It was a kind of fiction, a work of the imagination only, so far as he was concerned. This doubleness may easily make us poor neighbors, or even friends sometimes.

So, I can experience many many disappointments (or my doubleness can), or heartbreaks, or even tragedies, because all I have to do is play the role of "spectator" and stand back and watch. To my son I wrote this:

Build for yourself a strong box;
Fashion each part with care.
Fit it with hasp and padlock
And put all your troubles there.

Hide therein all your failures;
And each bitter cup you quaff.
Lock all your heartaches within it
Then sit on the lid and laugh.

Tell no one it's contents.
And never it's secrets share.
Drop in your cares and worries,
Keep them forever there.

Hide them from sight so completely
The world will never dream half;
Fasten the top down securely
Then sit on the lid and laugh.

My father said once that it is harder to practice than to preach. He was right. Sometimes you can fill your strong box so full that you can not get the lid on. That is where I stand today. I am trying to take antiquated troubles out of my box so I can close the lid. But see, I am constantly aware that the lid is open. That is why I never leave my box because some of the contents may escape. ("And never it's secrets share").

I am asking my many readers, in addition to the candles you are burning, could you add one more. Somehow the light isn't shining as brightly as it should. My boss is back in the hospital. We are keeping the faith. It's just that the light isn't shining. I hope there isn't a "Jonah" amongst us.

I would also like to thank the many people who take time away from their daily chores to drop us a line of comment. Also those who telephone. With the present schedule, we advise you to drop a line rather than try to catch us in the office.

We all thank you, and will remain open for your comments, pro or con. Just keep those candles burning and your wicks lit, please.

Responsibilities

Leadership is a basic element in human affairs. It is particularly important in representative government. With the increasingly complex nature of governmental responsibilities, it is just not possible to operate a pure democracy under which all of the people would make each decision. No individual citizen can hope to keep himself abreast of the technical and detailed knowledge essential to the operation of a modern, progressive city. Instead, he delegates the responsibilities of government to his elected representatives, who draw upon the resources and knowledge of a trained administrative staff and of experienced citizen members of agencies, boards and commissions to assure that these responsibilities are fulfilled wisely. This is the answer to the cry which is sometimes raised during controversy. "We demand that it be put to a vote of the people!" On some major issues, such as the Ordinane that the Council attempted to adopt last year designating itself as the Redevelopment Agency, a vote by the people is necessary and should be done.

Good leadership includes responsibilities so varied and so seemingly endless that they demand of every city official the very best that is in him. It is our councils' duty to be sure that all aspects of each situation are considered; that the benefit and welfare of the greatest possible number of people are served without unfair infringement upon the few; that the needs and wishes of today's citizens are met without unduly burdening future generations; that esthetic and spiritual values are given proper consideration. Our capacity to do all this marks the record of our service.

Leadership and responsibility are equally important is less conspicuous fields, such as directing or facilitating actual council proceedings so that meeting time may be used to the best advantage; making careful evaluation of staff research and other available material in weighing proposed decisions; noting methods used by other cities which might solve or prevent local problems; channeling citizen assistance into productive fields. Each of these requires of a Mayor or a Councilman vigor and objectivity which can be achieved only through persistent effort.

To insure that an adequate number of potential new leaders continues to be available for public service one other responsibility of those in office is of utmost importance --- the responsibility for preserving in the hearts and minds of all our citizens the dignity and integrity of our concept of representative government. It is our sacred duty to see that government is administered ably, humanely, and with decorum. The people have entrusted to our jedgment many serious decisions.

Edmond Burke, in a speech delivered in 1774 to the Electors of Bristol, England, on being elected to Parliament for that city, said of this trust: "Certainly it out to be the happiness and glory of a representative to live in the strictest union, the closest correspondence, and the most unreserved communication with his constituents. Their wishes ought to have great weight with him; their opinions high respect; their business unremitted attentions. It is his duty to sacrifice his repose, his pleasure, his satisfactions, to theirs, --- and above all, ever, and in all cases, to prefer their interest to his own. But his unbiased opinion, his mature judgment, his enlightened conscience, he ought not to sacrifice to you, to any man, or to any set of men living. These he does not derive from your pleasure, no, nor from the law and the Constitution. They are a trust from Providence, for the abuse of which he is deeply answerable. Your representative owes you, not his industry only, but his judgment; and he betrays, instead of serves you, if he sacrafices it to your opinion."

Though every member of our council may have, and frequently does have, a different point of view, it is obvious that the success of any administration depends on how well the council functions as a team. Again, this does not mean that an individual councilman will not stand firm on his principles or his judgment or will hesitate to speak his mind when appropriate. It does mean that tolerane and understanding are essential tools in every councilmans' kit and that a spirit of harmony is essential to maximum accomplishment. Any evidence, however slight, of disunity or disrespect among officials will be seized upon by unscrupulous persons and used to the disadvantage of the people as a whoel --- to divide opinon, to divide the council if possible, and, through sniping and confusion, to dissipate its cohesion and strength. We should avoid unnecessary conflict, but if it is important, we should fight with all our strength. There is rarely an excuse for fighting, and never an excuse for fighting feebly.

The preservation and strengthening of integrity and cooperation in government is the fundamental duty of leadership. It is our trust as public officials to leave to those who came after us a physical community in which they can live with pride. It is an even more important part of that trust that we pass on to them also a way of government they can honor and respect. Believe me, Seaside citizens want honest, efficient government.

In successive weeks Taxes, the Budget, the New Post Office, the New Library, an expanded Youth Center, Senior Citizens Needs, Laguna Grande, a proposal for an Ice Skating Rink at Broadway and Yosemite--plus more on responsibilities will be forthcoming.

Seaside's Progress is everybody's business.

As I See It

By Mel Vercoe

What would you do if a nosy neighbor came to your door and knocked and insisted on being allowed to come into your home so that she could inspect your kitchen, your bedroom and your billfold or purse? Would it help if she explained that she wished to do this so she could tell everybody else what she had found? Probably not.

Common Cause started out as a great idea - an attempt to get better representation in Congress for plain people. Many big industries and organizations have maintained paid lobbyists in Washington, D.C., for many years, while the ordinary taxpayer and voter just had to depend on someone's sense of fair play in order to get an equal representation as originally intended by our Constitutional framework.

So, Common Cause proposed to hire lobbyists to represent ordinary people, which is a step forward, assuming that we can't just do away with the whole idea of paid lobbying, which I think would be a much better idea if it could be done.

Congress recently enacted into law a requirement that candidates for federal offices must submit periodic reports on contributions and expenditures during election campaigns. This, too, is a step forward, if it will work, but the same loopholes that let corporations like U.S. Steel avoid paying income tax will probably nullify the intent of the disclosure law, PL 92-225, which wnet into effect on April 7.

As a candidate for Congress, I shall be making my first report under this law on May 22 to the Clerk of the House of Representatives. Unless you could see it first hand, you wouldn't believe the complexity of the mass of paperwork I will have to try to decipher and properly fill out in order to comply with this law.

The following are several items of news that I believe will be of interest to all of my constituents in the 4th Dictrict.

OFFICE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PLANNING: As a follow up on my previous comments on the reactivated OEDP Committee in Monterey County, I am very pleased to be able to state that my motion to reappoint MR. WILLIAM MURRAY (F. G. & E. Executive) as CHAIRMAN was unamiously approved by all members of the Board. Mr. Murray is extremely interested in this program and I know he will continue to do an outstanding job in his capacity as Chairman. The EDA Program as I previously reported is for the purpose of providing Federal Funding of programs for small business assistance.

Our Congressman Burt Talcott has recently asked the ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION to become more active on the Federal Level and urges more consultation on local projects.

FAMILY PLANNING: The Family Planning Program which was transferred from the old Anti-Poverty Council to the County Health Department disclosed a funding problem. This matter was temporarily relieved by the Boards action to provide $17,000 as interim measure and authorized the Director of the Health Department to apply for additional Federal and State monies in an amount of at least $80,000 for continuation of this very vital program.

TORO PARK: This park has met with remendous success since it's opening recently. We find that many of our local residents are taking advantage of the opportunity to enjoy fthe facilities now being offered in this 3,800 acres of OPEN SPACE. We find it necessary to purchase an additional 33 acres for a second entrance to provide access to a great portion of this park not otherwise accessible. The Board of Supervisors authorized a grant request to the Fedeal Government to participate to the extent of 50% of the ost of this property. We anticipate favorable action regarding this request.

LAGUNA SECA PARKING: Each time a Sports Car Race is held at the Laguna Seca Rae Track residents in the immediate area have been disturbed and concerned with the matter of vehicle parking. Many persons who drive their recreation type mobilhomes and trailers have been forced to park along Highway 68, on private property and in private driveways..all in violation of the existing law. Some weeks ago I met with our Planning Director and the owner of Laguna Seca Ranch, who had indicated an interest in alleviating the problem. As a result of this meeting a special permit was requested by the Laguna Seca Ranch and was granted on an experimental basis for the races to be held during the month of May. The approved location is in a remote area from the highway and can accommodate up to 500 vehicles. This parking area will be properly supervised and should be a welcome relief for County residents living in close proximity to the race track. I am very pleased that some action is being taken to ease the problem..both for our visitors and involved homeowners.

Council Honors Lou Haddad

RESOLUTION NO. 72-34

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SEASIDE COMMENDING MAYOR LOU HADDAD FOR HIS SERVICE TO THE CITY

WHEREAS, It is both fitting and proper that this City Council take note of the many accomplishments of Lou Haddad during his tenure of office with the City of Seaside, both as Councilman and as Mayor; and

WHEREAS, a decade ago Lou Haddad first offered himself for public office in Seaside as a mayoral candidate in the campaign of 1962; and

WHEREAS, although initially unsuccessful in that race the then Mayor, Andy Anderson, recognized Lou Haddad's loyalty to the city and his sincere desire to improve its image and accordingly appointed Lou to the Planning Commission where he served with distinction; and

WHEREAS, Lou Haddad's vigorous and spirited calls for action during the 1962 campaign galvanized the city into promptly instituting its plans for installing curbs, sidewalks and gutters in the city and as a result three quarters of the city now has curbs, gutters, and sidewalks; and

WHEREAS, first elected to the City Council in 1964, after receiving the highest number of votes of any candidate in that campaign, Lou Haddad participated in the decision to erect a new city hall and to employ world famous architect Edward Durell Stone to design it; and

WHEREAS, the center planted divider strips on Broadway was recommended by Lou Haddad and during his tenure in office numberous other achievements have been wrought in generally making Seaside the respected community it is today notably: (1) Construction of senior citizen housing and other low-rent housing; (2) Undergrounding of utilities in nearly one-third of the city; (3) Ownership by the city of a one million dollar water system; (4) All streets are presently paved; (5) The location of the brand new Department of Motor Vehicles building; (6) Seaside is the only city in the country, so far as is known, to have completely eliminated septic tanks; and

WHEREAS, other plans for improvement of the city in which Mayor Haddad has vigorously and effectively played a significant part in, include: (1) the obtaining of funds for a new recreation center; (2) plans for a new library which should be funded in the 1972-1973 fiscal year; (3) the beautification of Fremont Boulevard with a center planted divider strip from Broadway north to Playa; (4) the presence of seven automobile dealers in the automobile center, either in operation or under construction, by July 1, 1973; (5) the Laguna Grande project and K-Mart which will provide the funds necessary to purchase Roberts Lake for recreational purposes; and

WHEREAS, Lou Haddad played no small part in the annexation of Fort Ord to the city which finally was achieved after numerous rejections by Mayor Haddad making a personal trip to Washington, partially at his own expense, to consult with the Undersecretary of the Army; and

WHEREAS, During Mayor Haddad's tenure of office the city has received millions of dollars in federal aid at a fractional cost to local taxpayers and even that local cost will be more than offset by tax increment receipts from the Del Monte Heights Project in 1973; and

WHEREAS, as a measure of the city's growth and change during Lou Haddad's connection with city government the following figures tell a graphic story: In 1962 the city's budget was $1,196,836.00 and it is now $2,288,242.00; in 1962 the assessed valuation was $18,050,545.00 and now is $27,000,000.00 for a total increase of 92% and 53%, respectively; and

WHEREAS, it is with a deep sense of pride that this City Council takes note of this partial list of achievements and goals which Lou Haddad played so prominent a part in formulating and producing.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the City Council of The City of Seaside that the members thereof take this occasion to salute Lou Haddad and warmly commend him for the role he has played over the past ten years in the continued growth of the city; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the members hereof wish Lou continued success and happiness in whatever projects he undertakes and trust that his talents and dedication may continue to serve the City of Seaside.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 20th day of April, 1972 by the following vote:
AYES: Councilmen Barton, Ross, Cota, Olea and Mayor Dolan
NOES: None
ABSENT: None

Bob Wood Reports

Did you know that every time the Census Bureau's clock ticks off a net gain of one in the population of the United States there are two more motor vehicles added to the Nation's roads?

The population grows at the rate of about 6,000 per day, while the motor vehicles are increasing at the rate of nearly 12,000 per day.

Because of this and the fact that the drunk driving cases have risen by 278 percent in the last four years, the Legislature is considering and, I assure you, I will support several bills designed to crack down on the drinking driver.

One bill will, on the first offense, provide a mandatory two-day jail term for any convicted drunk driver. The author of the measure said under this bill every person convicted of driving under the influence of liquor would go to jail and the sentence could not be suspended or stayed by the courts.

The second bill states that the insurance company does not have to pay the claim of the drunken driver, but the drunken driver himself must pay for any damage resulting from an accident because of the driver's alcoholic condition. Perhaps if the driver know he had to pay his own way, people would think twice before drinking and then going out on the highway. In other words it denies insurance protection to the driver who causes an accident because he was intoxicated.

The third bill would give police officers greater flexibility in making arrests for drunk drivers. Current law allows a peace officer to arrest a person for a misdemeanor without a warrant, but only when the crime has been committed in his presence.

This bill would allow such an arrest if, after personal investigation by the officer, he has reasonable grounds to believe that the person did, in fact, drive while intoxicated -- even though the officer did not observe the action.

It's indeed a sad commentary on our society when stringent laws such as these have to be put into effect to control habits of people.

Little League Season Opens

Seaside National Little League officially opened it's baseball season last Saturday April 22. Carrying the colors was the Seaside American Legion Post #591 Color Guard. The Weblos for Pack #35, which is sponsored by the American Legion Post #591, raised the flags.

The six major teams and three fram clubs made a colorful infield as each boy and their managers and coaches were introduced.

The only sponsor present was the American Legion Post #591. President Biggs presented their sponsors certificate to the Post Commander.

Newly-elected Mayor Bernard Dolan started the season with a few comments on the importance of the Little League baseball in Seaside, after which he threw out the ball to start the games. Every player on each of the major teams got a chance to bat and play in the field during the six-inning game. Each team played two innings.

The officers for the 1972 season are: Orlando Biggs, president; Rudy McClenton, vice-president; Phyllis Rodrigues, secretary; Bob Hughes, treasure; Ken Houston, player agent; Louise Hughes, president of the ladies auxiliary.

Grooving Around the Peninsula

with BETTY MANN

Hi there follow Peninsulans:

Seaside almost was the "first" in the nation to elect a black woman mayor. Pearl Carey had the support, but apparently not enough people went to the polls to select their choice.

Interesting sites at the polls: Marie Sweet was seen donating her services at the polls along with Charlie Knight, who spent lots of time and gas transporting the elderly folks to and from the polls. Walter Brown, Mattye Blakeney, Sarah Jackson and many others who were hoping the little lady would win and were also there.

Pleasanter news around town: Four members of the Monterey Peninsula Cotillion League were sent by the League to Los Angeles to observe the Miss Black Teenage Los Angeles Pageant recently. Members who attended were Madlyn Thomas, Bettty Sapp, Dorothy Evans and myself. The L.A. pageant was sponsored by the Foxes and Hares Club which is composed of professional models and actresses and business professionals. While there, we were hosted by Bill Howard, California Director for the Miss Black Teenage America Pageant and James Hale, a professional model and L.A. commercial performer.

On Sunday evening I was chosen as one of the judges of this peageant. Serving on the same panel were Dawn Villere, actress in films and television; Emma Elerby, a noted Fashion Model and coordinator and Sylvester Jackson of Jackson Motion Pictures Inc. It was quite a thrilling experience to be serving in the same capacity as these interesting persons. The most exciting moment for me, however, was when Dawn Villere, the movie star, asked for my name and telephone number in Seaside so that she could invite me down to L.A. to spend a weekend on her yacht! "Whadda ya think of that." (smile)

On May 13, the Cotillion League will sponsor the Miss Black Teenage Monterey Peninsula Beauty Pageant. It will be held at the Monterey Fairgrounds Exhibition Hall beginning at 8 p.m. This beauty pageant will be for the selection of a contestant to compete in Los Angeles on June 11 for the title of Miss Black California, which is the preliminary to the Miss Black Teenage America Pageant that is to be held at Madison Square Garden in New York on July 28 and which will be nationally televised.

Contestants who are competing for the Miss Black Teenage Monterey Peninsula are: Kimberly Biggs, Renata Suber, Cheryl Deberry, Mary Pryor, Marsheila Devan, Regina Barrle, Kevin Parker, Angela Burdix, Erica Sweet, Cheryl Delaney, Doris Gooch, Helena McGirt, Roberta Linsey, Gloria Ross, Sheila Conners, Cassandra Hayward, Rhonday Mosely, Cheryl Cudley, Gail McClain, Debra Massey, Yvonne Isadore, Cheryl Lynn, Denise Downer, Debra Blackburn, Gail Clewis, Holly Spells, Monetta Beavers, Luella Madison, Cathy Burgess, and Carol Coleman.

If you are thinking of attending this glittering affair on May 13 and you wish to look beautiful and different, Nicole will be in town April 26-28 and can be reached at 373-5769. So if you think blondes have more fun and redheads are exciting, be like me be a readhead today and a brunette tomorrow.

Special Day at A's Game

The Oakland A's, the club that set a major league precedent last year with Hot Pants Day, will offer another first this year with the big league's initial Bald Headed Day on Sunday, May 14. The A's will honor the hairless set by allowing every bald headed man -- and bald headed lady -- accompanied by a paid admission to enter the Coliseum free for the 1:30 p.m. game against the Boston Red Sox.

And, to make sure that the outfielders do not lose any fly balls in the glare from all those naked noggins, all bald people will also receive a free A's cap to protect their heads from the sun. The caps have a gold bill, green crown and white "A's", just like the caps that all the A's players wear.

Free tickets for Bals Headed Day will be available only at the Coliseum ticket booths on the day of the game. The booths will open at 11:00 a.m. to accomodate early arrivals, with the Coliseum gates opening at 11:30 a.m.

Elected

Mrs. Robert A. Woods was elected President of the Officer Students' Wives' Club of the Naval Postgraduate School at its April 19 fashion showmeeting in the Barbara McNitt Ballroom. Others elected to the Executive Board were Mrs. James E. Payton, First Vice-President; Mrs. Arthur W. Newlon, Second Vice-President.

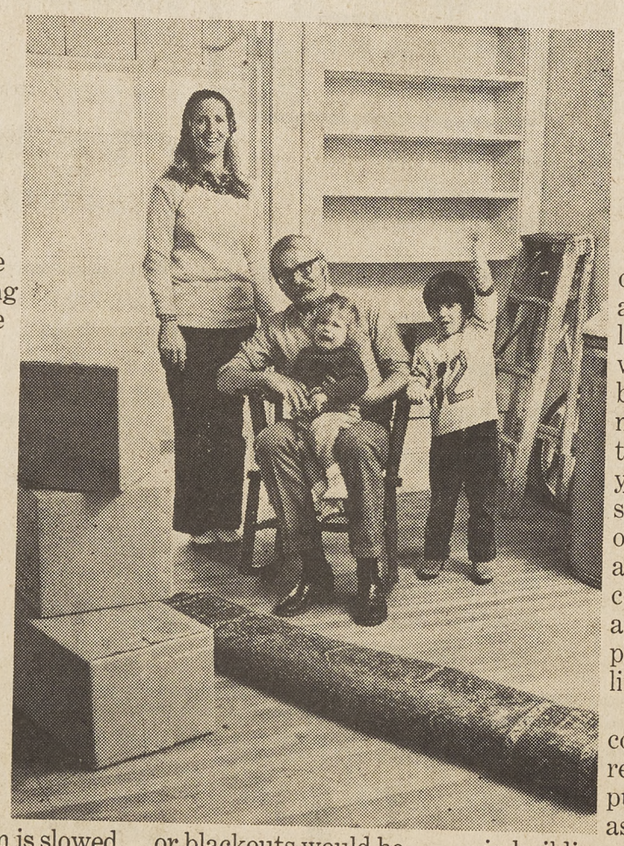
VOTE X LOREN E. SMITH
JUNE 6, 1972

COMMITTEE TO RE-ELECT LOREN E. SMITH
BISHOP S. RUDOLPH MARTIN
R. L. "DICK" SEARLE

83,000 new households here will need electricity this year - and the new power facilities to provide it.



The birth rate has been dropping and fewer people are moving to California, but nevertheless growing population is a fact of life. We must provide power facilities to serve these families' homes and jobs, plus the new stores, street lights and other public facilities they require.

If our construction program is slowed down unduly or stopped, the growing demand for electricity would exceed supply, and brownouts or blackouts would be inevitable.

Some individuals and groups are trying to slow down or stop construction of electric plants and transmission lines. However, we must continue building. And nowadays it takes about 10 years to acquire a suitable site, obtain regulatory approvals, construct and get a new power plant "on the line."

Qualified, competent and responsible public agencies assure that in building new facilities we serve the best public interests, including environmental and ecological considerations.

To keep your electricity on tomorrow, we must build today. PG and E

Brazil's Bahia: Why It Is Unique

By Gail Berkley,
POST Correspondent

"You haven't been to Bahia, Negro, go!"

This is what they say in Brazil, according to Antonio Vereza, a young Brazilian diplomat we met. So after Brasilia, to Salvador, Bahia, we came.

What sights assaulted our eyes in the city nestled around the Bahia de Todos os Santos (the Bay of all the Saints).

On the waterfront a man came up wishing to sell us baby monkeys that fit in the palms of his hands. We saw a youth with a baby armadillo and another carrying a large iguana.

We saw a fisherman walking with his catch balanced on his head--a 50 or 60 pound fish.

People carry all kinds of bundles on their heads: large baskets, bundles of laundry, goods for sale. One man carried a rock that looked quite heavy!

Bahia is a state in Northeastern Brazil and it is here that Brazil was born.

In the mid-16th century the city of Salvador da Bahia de Todos os Santos was founded by the Portuguese. Here is where the slaves were brought from Africa when the Indians native to the region proved poor workers.

MOSTLY BLACK

Bahia's population today is 60 to 70 percent Black.

Many remnants of African culture remain. In Brazil, slaves were treated less harshly than in the United States because of the Catholic faith of the Portuguese.

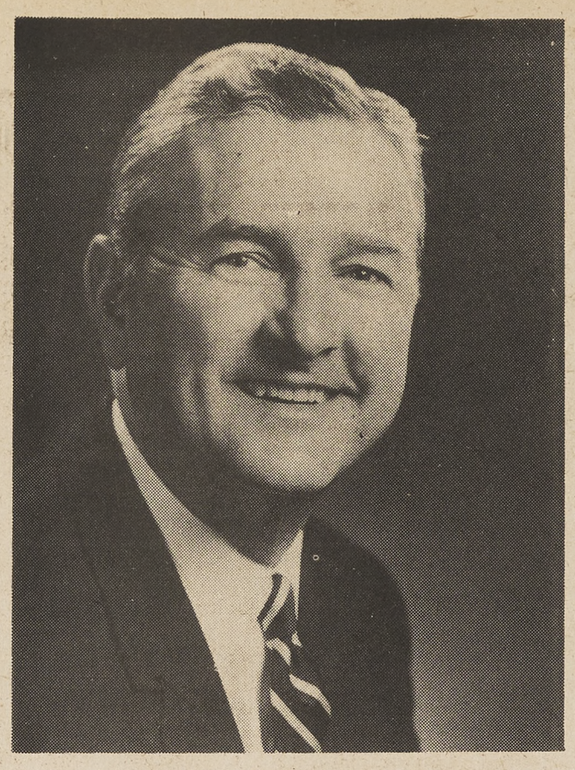
Many people here practice macumba, a religion brought over from Africa, known in the United States as voodoo. Some voodoo gods here have counterparts in saints of the Catholic church and some are gods borrowed from the Indian culture, for in Brazil the races have mixed from the beginning.

AFRICAN SPORT

Capoeira, a form of wrestling brought from Africa, may be seen performed on the streets of Salvador. The slaves--having no weapons--used their bodies in self defense. Speed and agility are very important elements of capoeira.

Capoeira today is performed by two men to the musical accompaniment of the barim-strument; tambourines, bamboo scrapers, drums, rattles and iron bells.

Watching capoeira is seeing dance and combat blended into one. The two antagonists with great, speed, agility, balance and grace kick and lunge at one another, ducking and dodging somewhat like karate and gymnastics combined.



SPEAKER - James E. Pike, C.S., member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak in Grove Theater, Pacific Grove, Thursday, May 4, at 12:15 p.m. His lecture is itiled "Life Without Doubt." It is free and open to public. Educational administrator before entering public healing ministry of Christian Science in 1956, Mr. Pike is resident of Chicago.

Meeting Was Held

Russee Parvin, president of the local chapter of California Landscape Contractors Association, Inc., presided over their April 12 dinner meeting at the Italian Villa in Salinas.

Guest speakers, Mr. Robert G. Knoll, Safety Engineering Manager, and Mr. Boyd E. Church, Senior Safety Engineer, representing the San Jose office of Industrial Indemnity Company, put on an excellent program

Proposes Bill Outlawing Bonus Increases By PUC

Assemblywoman Yvonne W. Brathwaite (D, Los Angeles) has introduced a bill to outlaw bonus increases to California utilities.

Pointing out that such unasked-for increases awarded by the Public Utilities Commission are "a travesty of consumer protection and a serious threat to inflation," the legislator said "any excessively high rate increases" should not be permitted.

Assemblywoman Brathwaite, chairman of the Assembly Urban Development and Housing Committee, is sponsoring the legislation s a result of a Wall Street Journal article on the PUC.

The Journal article recounted how "a small California water" utility asked for a 30-cent rate increase but would up with a 32-cent boost.

In describing how the PUC examiner had recommended only 2 27-cent increase after the utility had asked a 30-cent boost, the Journal stated:

"To the examiner's chagrin, according to reliable sources, he was privately ordered by his superiors to revise upward the rate award to 32 cents -- more than the company requested 'and arbitrarily higher than anything justified by the record,' says a PUC official."

The new Brathwaite legislation prohibits the PUC from approving rate increases greater than the amount of increase proposed by the public utility.
